Michael A. Correll

8511 Greenway Blvd #107,
Middleton, WI 53562

| Email: mcorrell@cs.wisc.edu | Cell (Preferred): 240-447-3651 |

Work Experience:
- Summer '10-Present: Research Assistant in the Graphics and Vision Lab, Department of Computer Sciences, Univ. of Wisc., - Madison.
- Spring '10: Teaching Assistant, "Visualization" and "Computer Game Technology" for the Department of Mathematics, Univ. of Wisc., - Madison.
- Fall '09: Teaching Assistant, "Calculus and Analytic Geometry" for the Department of Mathematics, Univ. of Wisc.. – Madison.
- Summer '09: Teaching Assistant, "Mathematical Logic" class at the Center for Talented Youth site in Lancaster, PA
- Summer '08: Intelligence Aide (Computer Science), Office of Naval Intelligence.
- Summer '06, '07: Teaching Assistant, "Introduction to Robotics" class at the Center for Talented Youth site in Stanford, CA

Education:
- 2009-Present: Graduate Student in the Department of Computer Sciences, University of Wisconsin – Madison. M.S. in Computer Science 2011.
- 2005-2009: Graduated from St. Mary's College of Maryland summa cum laude with a B.A. in Computer Science and Philosophy, minor in Mathematics.
- 2001-2005: Richard Montgomery High School, Rockville, MD (International Baccalaureate Diploma Program, with a 3.5 GPA).

Honors:
- Phi Beta Kappa honor society
- Dean's List Scholar, 2005-2009
- Multicultural Achievement Award Winner
- St. Mary's Senior Scholar
- National Merit Finalist
- 2006 Columbia Scholastic Press Association Gold Circle Recipient
- AP Scholar with Distinction

Personal:
- Familiarity with programming and application design in a variety of programming languages including C++/C#, Java, PHP.

College activities including President of St. Mary's Take One! Improv, Vice President of Hillel, weekly host on college's The Hawk Radio, lead role in college production of The Wild Duck, featured artwork in the 2008 College All-Student Juried Art Show.